Reviews

“The Second Coming of the Christ Consciousness on Earth is the most thrilling story of our time. Here it is proclaimed through a miraculously restored biblical text and manifested for all to share by the inspired actions of a dedicated few across the Planet. This unusually comprehensive account is compelling reading and convincingly proves that the final and inescapable choice between Love and Fear now challenges each one of us. Free will is ours by Divine decree, but do we hear the call?”

Sir George Trevelyan , United Kingdom

"Multiple levels of understanding, rich and stimulating await the reader. This text is a must for daring thinkers of every tradition; there is something for everyone, and above all it gives us hope. The Third Book of the Apocalypse, restored by direct spirit intervention, with its power and magnificence reveals to us the Greater hand and Heart that is ever watching for our responses."

Rev. Carol Parrish, Principal and Founder, Sancta Sophia Seminary, The Light of Christ Church, USA

"Simon Peter Fuller offers the most hard-hitting and incisive challenge to organised religions and other exterior-focussed belief structures that I have found in our times. Delivering powerful biblical Revelations restored directly by spirit after 1500 years of suppression by false priests, I view him as a leading, independent figure in the reawakening of humanity to the unified (Christ) consciousness within. "

Triaka Don Smith, President and Founder, Spiritual World Network, Hawaii USA

"The author generously shares his wisdom and there is no doubt that he provides constructive alternatives to conventional methods of conceptualising man's relationship with the planet."

Conscious Living Magazine, Australia

"This book has touched us both deeply. It brings together many threads of knowledge, combines them with powerful emotional and spiritual experiences and offers practical and effective ways of contributing to the healing of our planet."

Professors Margrit and Declan Kennedy, Permaculture Germany

"Her Royal Highness found Rising out of Chaos both interesting and enlightening."

Secretary to HRH The Princess of Wales, Kensington Palace.

4 Rising Out Of Chaos

"This book throws light on the past, clarifies and enthuses the present, and gives clear direction for the future. It also embraces scholastic research, spiritual insight, cultural exploration and one man's remarkable personal story. Simon Peter's journey is essential to the end of one aeon and the start of a new, and with his Aquarian Cross, he has created a legend by courageously following his quest."

Hilary Allen, Australian author of Pendulum

"For those with ears to hear Rising out of Chaos sounds a clarion call, both challenging and profound. Simon Peter Fuller's book encompasses an enormous scope and depth of vision. Each reader must respond from the heart."

Pegasus Magazine UK

"Skillfully weaving personal insight with prophecy, science and universal law, the author makes a compelling case for a Second Coming in which personal responsibility plays a pivotal role. Humanity is at a threshold and here a plausible scenario is presented in which enough people wake up spiritually and link together in time to prevent life as we know it from extinguishing itself in a grand cataclysmic finale."

NAPRA ReView

"Rarely these days does one receive publications that hold one's attention from cover to cover meriting in-depth study of the material. The truth and compassion Simon Peter applies to his mission and the account of his realisation and quest proves to be a compelling, moving and challenging document. He is motivated by a sacred respect for the Divine that significantly distinguishes his book from the fringe elements under which more conventional thinkers might seek to categorise it."

Simon Bell, Director, World Network of Religious Futurists.

"Simon Peter Fuller is a man with a mission – to raise human consciousness enough to promote the swift return of the Christ energy to Earth as we pass between the Piscean and Aquarian world ages. His inspiring story, superbly set forth in this book, adds a vital dimension to mankind's opportunity to create Heaven on Earth here and now."

Dr. Chet B. Snow, author of Mass Dreams of the Future

"In Simon Peter's hands the Aquarian Cross has travelled far and wide in recent years uplifting human and planetary consciousness during meditations, rituals and ceremonies on many of the Earth's major power centres....."

The One in you from the One in me as a testimony of love for we are One.

WILL YOU WAKE?

The human heart can go the lengths of God
Dark and cold we may be, but this
Is no winter now. The frozen misery
Of centuries breaks, cracks, begins to move;
The thunder is the thunder of the floes,
The thaw, the flood, the upstart Spring.
Thank God our time is now when wrong
Comes up to face us everywhere,
Never to leave us till we take
The longest stride of soul men ever took.
Affairs are now soul size.
The enterprise
Is exploration into God.
Where are you making for? It takes
So many thousand years to wake.
But will you wake for pity's sake?

From A Sleep of Prisoners by Christopher Fry

In our age, an energy that is Light, Life and Love will flood the Earth, re-animating the realm of matter and raising its vibratory rate to that of the spiritual worlds. The two will interpenetrate and interact.
So high is this frequency that it will repel all particles, energies and beings attuned to the lower frequencies of egoism, greed,
selfishness, violence,
hatred, rivalry and war.
There will be a total transformation.

Sir George Trevelyan

Foreword

On a small planet in a little known system at the edge of a remote galaxy, a cosmic drama of almost inconceivable grandeur is being played out. The people of this world, having lost sight of their origins, their history and the purpose of their journey through space and time, are sleepwalking towards certain self-destruction. All their major institutions social, political, economic and religious are on the verge of collapse. The spectres of war, famine, fear and oppression are everywhere. The planet's seas and waterways, forests, soil and atmosphere are all being poisoned. Indeed, all life-forms are threatened. Cataclysm seems inevitable.

And then, at the very last moment, a miracle occurs: all round the planet, pinpoints of light appear. Solitary men and women, alert to the dangers that beset their world, begin to gather into groups and link up, forming a fragile network, gossamer-fine at first, but quickly gaining in resonance and power.

As the darkness intensifies, this network goes into overdrive, creating the living hologram of a new world co-existing with the civilisation that is dying all around them. A great rescue operation is mounted: first hundreds, then thousands, then millions of the population are woken out of their daydream by this growing army of light. Balance is restored, critical mass is reached, and the unspeakable is averted.

Science fiction? On the contrary: as you have already surmised, that world is Earth, those people are ourselves and, as this book vividly demonstrates, we are all leading players in that cosmic drama.

Some years ago, Peter Fuller found himself being torn from his everyday life and goaded into action; frog-marched into a new life, into a quest for his own truth, his own past and his future; propelled by some inner voice that would not be denied. Everything he had built up and worked for – his career, his possessions, his beliefs and his sense of personal identity – were suddenly irrelevant.

As the New Age “roadshow” swirled past him with its glamorous cast of visionaries, prima donnas, specialty acts, stunt men, clowns and extras of every shape, size and description, Peter managed to maintain a clear detachment from it all and resolutely followed his own inner light, wherever it led him.

It has taken him on a unique journey across the world and beyond. It has taken him from Avalon to Africa; to the middle East, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and the Americas. It has taken him back to the dawn of time, through the birth-pangs and early infancy of the new world. It has reacquainted him with the secret history of mankind; with prophecy, magic and the Ancient Wisdom.

It has reintroduced him to other worlds, other dimensions, and to some of the many beings who inhabit them – who have a vested interest in offering us creative partnership in Operation Earth Rescue.

A man of rare insight and sensitivity, Peter almost had to be dragged into writing this extraordinary, shocking, hard-hitting, courageous and inspiring account of his adventures. But it is a story that had to be told: one man's first-hand experience of the most dramatic chapter in the world's history.

It is literally a Book of Revelations!

Michael Joseph, July 26th 1991

Michael, whose own work is primarily concerned with the vital role young people will soon be playing in human affairs, has just published his own fascinating experiences and his adventures with the legendary magician Merlin whose own mission is no longer “the Matter of Britain”, but of the whole world. Staying with me in 1991, Michael awoke early one morning, and wrote the above Foreword as it flowed through him. He handed it to me at breakfast with a knowing look long before I had even thought of writing a book! Clearly it was time, and everything conspired during the summer of 1992 to allow the work to proceed.

Introduction

“Humanity is now going through its final examination as to whether it can qualify for its Universal function and thereby qualify for continuance on board the planet. Whether humanity will pass its final exams for such a future is dependent on you and me.”

R. Buckminster Fuller

The third edition of this book, some nine years after it was written in 1992, has allowed me to assess its impact on an already enthusiastic worldwide readership with the result that the amendments and additions I have now included will help to reinforce the relevance of its message at this most critical of moments in the evolution of human consciousness.

To make it easier for the reader to assimilate the copious information in the book, and to help keep a perspective of the overall philosophy, I propose to use this extended introduction briefly to identify my main themes and to show how they combine to produce a broad overview of the development of ‘western’ spiritual culture. By unravelling often deliberately confused historical information and false religious indoctrination, a radically different picture emerges of the last two millennia. Although most people may not be aware of it, it is in fact now the destiny of the western culture, through the English language, to establish the Unified (Christ) consciousness as the only truly universal power capable of reconciling all humanity. With this in mind, the material presented here will challenge conventional thinking and drastically redefine the accepted version of key events that have shaped our more recent history.

It is, though, important to emphasize at the outset that any small contribution my work may be making to the global awakening process is of a practical rather than theoretical nature. The New Jerusalem cannot remain forever an abstract concept in the heads of intellectuals, even though they have inspired us with uplifting visions of it defined in spiritual, emotional, mathematical and geometrical terms.

Now is the appointed time to live and express these high ideals in our daily lives as an example to others, as well as to prove to ourselves – and the higher realms now watching us intently! – that we can actually do it. This, above all else, is a time of vision combined with right action, if we wish to take advantage of the golden opportunities we are now being offered to create a new reality on our long-suffering Earth.

By describing in detail my own complex and stigmatised early life,

the profound spiritual awakening combined with inner work in mid-life and, soon afterwards, the totally unexpected manifestation of my life purpose, I am able to draw on the still-unfolding story and use it as a practical example of the many processes each one of us must undergo sooner or later on the path to self-realisation. I already have plenty of confirmation that the real life experiences and problem resolution described are capable of empowering and encouraging those who are not yet aware that their own spiritual awakening can only be triggered from within.

We seem to face broadly similar problems in life, so sharing traumatic situations honestly is often a more effective way of encouraging personal introspection and inner growth, than the academic approach based on dry intellectual theory. We have far greater potential for effecting lasting change in those around us by appealing to their hearts before their heads! It takes great courage to face our inner shadows, but nothing of enduring spiritual consequence occurs in our lives or our work until we do – and we only incarnated on Earth to grow spiritually.

It should also be made very clear that the intention of openly sharing the details of my life experiences is not to attract a personal following and create yet another Piscean cult, but rather to liberate and empower people to fulfil their own particular purpose for incarnating here at this crucial time. I don't pretend to have all – indeed, any – answers and can only share the processes I have personally experienced and that unexpectedly transformed my rather bleak spiritual prospects into a fulfilling life that appears to be synchronistically guided by powers beyond our normal comprehension.

Indeed, many reading this book, especially those approaching it from an exclusively intellectual perspective, may well find much in it too hard to accept. What must be understood, however, is that it is written specifically to challenge the sterile and outmoded thinking processes of a race that has for too long prized the sheer cleverness of brainpower above that of the wisdom which shows us how to use thought appropriately. By common consent only a tiny proportion of the full potential of the human mind has so far been activated. Unless we start to produce balanced thought inspired by the Universal mind of One (God) to which we are all inextricably linked, and integrate the different thought capacities of the left and right brain hemispheres, then there simply is no future for us here on Earth.

Since it is only through a healthy body and inner transformation leading to the opening of the heart that we are capable of raising our vibratory frequencies sufficiently to participate in the consciousness shift now destined for humanity, I have added new material in Chapter 18 to help focus these underestimated and all-too-often ignored aspects of our preparation. I also explain the current polarisation of human consciousness between Love and Fear in fulfilment of the prophecy of ‘the sorting of the wheat from the chaff’.

This relates to the impending split within humanity according to individual free will, so that the low vibrational levels of fear are transmuted before the higher dimensional frequencies can be established on Earth.

Another reason for the personalised approach in writing this book is that, as much of the Earth activation work described later is not yet widely understood or accepted, it is important to demonstrate through a personal testament that the events described did take place and that they are now witnessed historical fact regardless of people’s opinions about them. There is a significant body of proof now being gathered by aware people all around the world that they are dramatically transforming consciousness and thereby changing the current reality levels for the better. This is the work in which I am involved during the journeys described here and as the evidence is accumulated, it will be ever harder for the less aware to dismiss it just because they don’t understand it.

The dawning realisation that awakened humans are indispensable at many unsuspected levels in the transformation of the predominantly negative reality levels here is itself central to the philosophy expressed in this material. Through mass meditational mind-linking, realigning the planet’s subtle energy grid and activating her power centres, we actually create the subtle structure for the New Jerusalem to manifest on Earth.

I must stress that the prime function of this book is to clarify the historical, geographical and metaphysical connection between the First and Second Coming of the Christ consciousness – and it has certainly turned out to be the most controversial! Inevitably, many sacred cows have had to be slaughtered here as false and disempowering concepts about ‘Second Coming’ are dismissed.

No less challenging is the fact that the Aquarian ‘New Jerusalem’ spiritual focus is now to be found in a new location that replaces Old Jerusalem’s former primacy. Nothing further of spiritual significance is to occur in ancient Palestine and the world can only observe in sorrow as religious and political fanatics battle for control of a region whose once revered spiritual mandate has now expired.

Spirituality and religion parted company long ago in the common rooted Judeo/Christian/Islamic tradition and we shall now all bear witness to this fact as militant fundamentalists in all three religions manifest the exact reverse of the divine inspiration that initiated them all, so long ago. It is time then at least to lower the curtain on the tired old play called ‘Christianity’ that once played to packed houses in the western culture, but whose stale and uninspiring lines are now mouthed by ever less convincing actors and whose audiences are daily dwindling to a point where the commercial enterprise backing it is financially unviable!

Meantime the brothers Ephraim and Manasseh, identified respectively as the United Kingdom and the United States of America, are destined to take on the leadership of the once ‘lost’ tribes of Israel in accordance with Old Testament prophecies. Mainly those of Celtic origin were forced into exile by the English during the last three centuries and in the words of the prophecy ‘having multiplied like the sands of the seashore’ – throughout the English-speaking New World – they now have the responsibility of establishing the Christ consciousness for the benefit of all mankind.

First and Second Coming, probably the most misinterpreted and confused events ever recorded, can only be understood when expressed in terms of massive influxes of redemptive energy permeating the planet and humanity at the beginning and now at the end of the Piscean Age. The ‘Old’ Jerusalem dispensation was anchored on Earth by one self-realised, Christed being, precisely so that the ‘New’ Jerusalem could be manifested within the whole human family two thousand years later. This is to take the form of a mass spiritual awakening within all prepared and freely choosing hearts – initiated, as I explain in this book, through the global Celtic dispersion.

The ever-more-spectacular crop formation phenomenon occurring among the ancient power sites of Celtic south west England, where over two thousand profound symbols have appeared in the fields since the late 1980’s, is proof in itself that this region has become a major focus of spiritual attention – especially when related to the historical and geo- graphical perspective explored in this book about the inauguration and activation of the New Jerusalem anchor point.

Revered tribal spiritual leaders and many others in the forefront of the New Awareness movement confirm that the purpose of these exquisite mandalas is to trigger the awakening of all mankind, and that they have been deliberately sited in the region that represents the Heart of Earth. The crop formations are an ancient language that speaks to the soul, and just by looking at the images, we automatically receive their messages – regardless of any intellectual scepticism!

The crucial missing chapters of the Revelations text, restored to WWV by the direct intervention of spirit using modern communication technology, present the most effective challenge ever mounted against the distorted teachings of the Christian belief structure. Clearly, our friends on the inner planes must be mightily concerned about the disastrous influence of this divisive and disempowering religion to have found such an ingenious and effective method for circumventing any further attempts at censorship by the church fathers. Needless to say, this ancient, 'Prophecy of the Second Coming of the Christ consciousness', among much else that is currently occurring, long ago foresaw the anti-Christ role of spiritually ignorant Christian clerics in these last days of the old order.

We are also told of the awakening of the all-important 'critical mass' of humanity. This is referred to in the Revelations text as the 144,000, who are fully committed, 4th dimensional souls capable of activating the exponential shift of mass consciousness upon which so much now depends. The restoration of the Divine Feminine principle 'in the last days' was also long ago prophesied, as the era of the Christ Feminine now brings balance to the Christ masculine manifested at the opening of the Piscean Age. The female of our species is awakening first, as I can confirm at my own public meetings which they attend in a majority ratio to men 3:1. Some say that it was when we first saw our planet from space through the eyes of the first astronauts that human consciousness was reminded of the Divine Feminine by the very roundness and beauty of our exquisite Goddess Gaia.

The full text of Revelations III is not only included in this new edition, but has also been made available to the world at large on our Wholistic World Vision Internet Web site and on Compuserve's Religion Forum. Having received the information electronically, we have offered it back in the same way, so that spirit can spread it through the latest communication technology directly to all those aware enough to grasp its truly awesome significance – free of charge, of course!

Further evidence of this novel means of communication is available in the new book Conversations Beyond the Light with Departed Friends and Colleagues by Electronic Means (see bibliography). The Instrumental Transcommunication (ITC) group that published it confirms with hard evidence that in recent years regular communications with spirit have taken place by telephone, fax, computer and TV screens! Furthermore, their well-documented scientific research into this phenomenon is government funded and apparently even the Vatican itself is involved in this research. At WWV we have also enjoyed direct phone conversations with Gandhi and Winston Churchill, and my editor has similarly conversed post mortem with Ava Gardner. Death, yet again, is proven to be an illusion of the physical dimension and need no longer cause us fear. "The last enemy to be destroyed is Death" (1 Cor. 15:26).

Our guidance is that much vital and deliberately suppressed information is now to be made available to the general public right over the heads of the controlling authorities by direct means, in order to assist in the spiritual awakening process. The Revelation text clearly comes into this category. It also needs to be remembered that, in the multi-dimensional world we inhabit, spirit has often intervened directly in human affairs and the arrival of the Ten Commandments together with the manifestation of the Golden Tablets of Mormon are but examples.

Another distinguishing feature of my work that came into existence at the same time as the Revelations text first reappeared is the Aquarian Cross. This perfectly balanced emblem of the Christ consciousness incorporating the Vesica Pisces, Golden Mean and equal-armed Cross symbology is understood to be the last Cross of the Piscean era. The initial purpose of this Universal and non-religious symbol was as the vehicle for transferring energy between the Old and New Jerusalem power sites at the Aeon Shift ritual in 1990 described in Chapter 6. As much of the book is about helping people to identify the real spiritual legacy of Jesus Christ's mission, it is perhaps appropriate at this point to state that I would describe myself as 'Christ conscious' rather than 'Christian' and that I write from that perspective.

Since 1990, the Aquarian Cross has travelled the world and been used as an amplifier of energy at all the Earth power site activations described in the following pages. As symbols trigger the subconscious, this Cross, through its harmonious equilibrium, helps us open the heart. Small silver and gold versions of the cross have been made by Wholistic World Vision centres around the world, on their own initiative, and many have now chosen to wear it as a token of their inner commitment to spiritual growth and the fulfilment of their own spiritual blueprints. Clear intention, motivation and complete commitment are the three crucial factors in our spiritual striving and, once these are established, we can apply ourselves wholeheartedly to the work we came to do.

Much of the work already referred to has been inspired by an inter-dimensional partnership called Wholistic World Vision, which has many distinguished, but unseen, associates on the inner planes. WWV is a communications network that is being developed in many countries by people who wish to share their spiritual skills and insights, knowing that it is by co-operation through communication that we remind each other of the spiritual truth that already resides deep within each one of us. 'Educare' in Latin means 'to lead out', which presupposes that there is something 'in there', to lead out in the first place! What a pity our current educationalists have lost sight of this and, instead of drawing out the hidden talent within, insist on cramming us with data that is largely irrelevant to our individual paths. Most of us forget it anyway, once it has been superficially memorised just to pass exams.

Spiritual re-education in the principles of the unchanging Ancient Wisdom and Universal Laws is the first priority on this planet, if we are to encourage people to express the inner wisdom that liberates them from ignorance and superstition. We are asked to listen to children, instead of conditioning them remorselessly. They speak wisdom from the heart, and teachers would be advised to pay attention to them, if they wish to maintain order in increasingly anarchic classrooms. Only when we start to educate spiritually will people be enabled to make informed freewill choices that support rather than retard the evolutionary progress of their souls.

Since there can be no genuine freedom or peace on Earth until we live by Divine rather than human law, all will now depend on the availability of enlightened spiritual education across the full spectrum of all human activity on the planet. Fortunately, now that institutional control and censorship is being rendered impotent by mass direct communication on the computer networks like the Internet, we at last have the opportunity to stimulate a huge upliftment of human awareness.

Mass direct communication will also herald the end of our deeply-flawed democratic political process, which has been subverted by selfish career politicians abusing privileged, highly-paid, public positions to advance their private interests and personal aggrandisement at the expense of their public duty. The time for a global network of ‘Councils of Wisdom’ – formed by modestly paid individuals, from all walks of life and age groups and selected for their demonstrated ability to honour the responsibility of public office – is long overdue to restore sanity to what currently passes for the charade of democratic government.

Only through genuine consensus will we be able to handle the immense challenge of restructuring our socio-economic reality in response to the mechanisation, automation, robots and sophisticated computer technology that are daily – and permanently – replacing millions of manual, clerical and even professional jobs. Recent statistical projections from the USA suggest that some 90 of the 124 million existing jobs are vulnerable to eventual replacement in that country alone! The long-heralded era of freedom from conventional ‘labour’ has now arrived, but we will only be able to benefit from it if we are educated spiritually and liberated financially so as to be able to use our new-found ‘leisure’ for spiritually constructive purposes. For instance, revenue for responsible state spending directed specifically towards the enlightenment and happiness of society as a whole must in future derive from the profits of commercial enterprise, rather than through the burden of restrictive personal taxation.

Wholistic World Vision supports all spiritual educational initiatives and also provides a global network that can be quickly activated for mass meditational mindlinking to counteract the ravages of the fear that is itself the cause of all human dysfunction. Too few people realise that a 'silent minute' observed daily by millions of heart-centred people right across the planet would be sufficient to raise human consciousness permanently above the debilitating levels of fear that dominate our present reality. It is well to remember that the 'silent minute' at 9 o'clock each evening instigated by enlightened initiates advising Winston Churchill in Great Britain during the last war was the secret weapon that turned the tide against the forces of darkness unleashed by Hitler – and recently released papers in Germany show that 'the dark initiate' Hitler knew this all too well!

LOVE LINK – THE 'WIN WIN' WAVE

How simple it would be to initiate such a worldwide movement, through which all people of goodwill could simply think loving thoughts about a person or place that really opens their hearts for a few co-ordinated minutes at midday each day. The energy wave would race across the Earth feeding back positive vibrations to those who send and receive the loving thoughts in a rising tide of Light that would provide the greatest possible opportunity for ever more people to lift into the new consciousness.

Let's Link in Love now – and WIN!
