

Sue Prescott has a Masters Degree in Social Work. She has worked for over 24 years doing family, marital and individual counseling, both in a family service agency and in a private practice. Sue leads therapy groups and has taught classes on personal growth issues, including self-esteem, effective communication and parenting skills. Currently, Sue has a private practice in the Seattle area.

Review

"In my quest to understand and live a spiritual life, I've followed many paths on this journey. One conclusion I have reached is that all paths lead to the same source-the soul or spiritual force within you. Realizing the Self Within by Sue Prescott is the clearest explanation of what I would call 'difficult to understand' concepts that take a serious look at who we really are. Her manner of conveying these concepts through a class format is very clever indeed. I liked the questions and responses the class members offered and felt like a participant myself.

"If you want to cut through a lot of misunderstanding and frustration, I would suggest that you grab a hold of Sue's book and give it a thorough reading. You won't be disappointed."

-Rod Agassiz, M.Ed., Counselor/Instructor, Bellevue Community College, Bellevue, Washington Send Us Your Comments